'Seats for the Mall' Project

The aim of our 'Seats for the Mall' project is to get furniture and art in the atrium area of the mall. South Alive wants to make the area a vibrant and colourful space - where we can have small events and performances and where you can sit for awhile and watch the world go by.

As well as the seats, we also plan to have four planter boxes in the back entrance foyer. And we're working with SIT and local artists on a concept for aerial art.

To make this project happen, we need the support of businesses and/or individuals to donate one of the proposed seats or garden boxes. If you're able to help, please contact us (see details bottom right, below) or drop into our office. Full details of the chairs and boxes, and prices are in the window of our office in the Mall. We can also discuss how we can acknowledge you for your contribution.

7 sleeps to go until Quiz Night!

Ross Swain of Selectrix 100% shows Marie Patton, South Alive Trustee, the camera the store is donating as one of the many prizes for Quiz night. Thanks Selectrix – our 100% locally owned appliance store!

Please support South Alive by attending our quiz night. We're holding the event to raise funds for our community projects. So if you like what South Alive is doing, please get your friends, workmates, neighbours and family to form teams of four and come along for a great time.

We'll have lots of fantastic raffles and awesome prizes for the winning teams. See you there!

Newfield Tavern 7pm, and you might like to make a night of it and have a meal at Big Willy Rustler's Restaurant first.

Teams of four @ $20 per team entry.

Basketball court ready to roll

After a big effort last Thursday, the basketball pole was hauled into place and, with the lines due to be painted this week, the court is ready to go.

We'll be organising an official opening later in June so watch our website and facebook for details. And in the meantime,

Q: How many blokes does it take to raise a basketball pole?

A: Four – as long as one is really tall!

New Community Noticeboard

Our super handyman Bill Bruce with the newly installed noticeboard – thanks Bill!

South Alive is really pleased to announce that with funding from the Community Trust of Southland it has been able to provide a noticeboard for community events and information.

Its ready to go and is located in the mall atrium area, across from our office. We're looking forward to clubs, organisations, schools and event makers keeping us posted with what's going on - and there's plenty of brochure holders as well for take-away leaflets.

$10,000 Neighbourhood Project Fund

Is there a project you'd like to do in in your neighbourhood? It might be a physical improvement or it might be something new, or art/craft of some kind, or perhaps organising your neighbours into some type of group or service... anything is possible. If you have an idea we may be able to help.

With funding of $10,000 from the Community Trust of Southland, South Alive is setting up the Neighbourhood Project Fund which will grant qualifying projects up to $1,000 each.

More details soon, but in the meantime, if you're interested, get in touch with South Alive in any of the ways shown in our 'Contact Details'.

Thanks to our fantastic Sponsors!

The businesses we want to thank this month have made a huge contribution to South Invercargill by providing us with free products and services so we can build the Community Park.

- Invercargill Licensing Trust – providing $15,000 to assist in the construction of the basketball court
- NES Network Electrical Services – free assistance towards getting lighting installed and working in the park
- Stadium Southland – providing the hoop and backboard for the basketball court, and coming to install it.
- SouthRoads – keep on helping us, this time in laying asphalt millings on the Bin Inn driveway
- Van Eden Tulips – thanks for the sack of Crocus bulbs

We would be grateful if you can support these businesses wherever possible, and please tell them that you saw them mentioned in our newsletter. Thanks!
